Teacher's Name: NTH

1. List any five essential elements of a valid contract with examples. (CLO 1, Level I)

2. Explain the idea of “possibility of performance” as an essential element of a valid contract. Give one example of an agreement that is impossible from the beginning and explain why such an agreement cannot be enforced. (CLO 2, Level II)

3. Two friends, A and B, agree that A will help B prepare for exams every weekend, and B will treat A to dinner after the exams. Later, B refuses to give any dinner. Apply the rule on intention to create legal relations to answer whether A can sue B for breach of contract. (CLO 3, Level III)

4. Analyze the concept of ‘Invitation to treat’ in contract law pointing out how it differs from an offer, with reference to catalogues, display of goods and auctioneer’s calls for bids, and briefly state with illustration when an advertisement may be treated as a real offer. (CLO 4, Level IV)
